

Project coordinator

The Project Coordinator manages autonomously the executive planning phase, included the coordination of external draughtsmen; defines the technical specifications of the items and follows the various productions phases at the suppliers headquarters; establishes and maintains the relations with the Italian and foreign clients fin regard with technical issues; carries out on-site inspections during the measuring and installation phases. The position requires a Master degree or high school diploma with a technical curriculum and in-depth knowledge of the characteristics and methods of manufacturing of materials (mainly woods, metals and glass); good knowledge of the Autocad 2D software; good knowledge of written and spoken English; availability to short but frequent visit on site in Italy and abroad; previous experience, even if short, in the furnishing sector.

[POS. B]