

Purchasing manager

The Purchasing Manager will manage the purchase department for the whole Group. The position entails the coordination and monitoring of the purchasing team during the activity of purchase of furniture, raw materials, elements and accessories for the single companies of the Group; the negotiation with the suppliers for significant orders; the evaluation of potential new suppliers in Italy and abroad and the monitoring of the historic suppliers of the group.

The position requires a Master Degree in Engineering Management or similar; previous experience in similar positions preferably in companies in the same sector, inbuilt skills of negotiation and commercial relations; advanced knowledge of written and spoken English; availability to travel in Italy and abroad.

[POS. C]