

The House of Koko

London, UK

ID: Pirajeau Lees

The House of Koko, a thrilling member's club located backstage at London's iconic Koko, comprises an immersive series of spaces injecting adventure into the members' club experience. For this building like no other Interna supplied loose bespoke furniture for 14 different areas: the interior design envisaged an haute couture concept for all the items - seats, banquettes and sofas, tables, consoles, cabinets - produced as one offs in Italy according to the highest executive standards and employing precious and eclectic materials.
